

Media Development Lead - Freelance:

The Media Development Lead's primary focus is on ensuring the high quality execution of "enhanced student experiences" integrated into a baseline course build. The MDL's goal is to ensure that the vision of each course's Instructional Designer is enacted with fidelity.

- 5+ years industry experience developing custom media solutions
- Proven experience working effectively within or administering LMS systems such as Canvas, Sakai or Blackboard
- Demonstrated experience leveraging LMS tools (particularly within Canvas and Sakai) such as Kaltura, Piazza, H5P, Zoom...
- Stays up to date with effective learning and development methods, has a pulse on the direction of the industry
- Experience in project management and budgeting
- Proficiency and confidence working within the following mediums, and implementing within above-mentioned Learning Management Systems.

10+ Hours during normal working hours, required