

Writer, Nursing

About Us:

Wisewire is an Edtech company focused on learning design & grounded in the science of how students of all ages engage, practice, and learn. We create technology-enabled solutions for providers in the pre-K-12, university, career readiness, and alternative credential markets. Our scalable technology enabled framework-driven approach accelerates time to market with high fidelity to outcomes. Design thinkers at our core, we complement fresh perspectives with our combined decades of expertise in quality experience design, sustainable content investment, and a repository of customizable learning objects and skill packs.

Our learning materials have been adopted by 48% of the institutions in the United States and are used by 2.2 million students. The Wisewire team consists of over 2,500 subject matter experts, data scientists, learning architects, and interaction designers who all work together toward a common goal. Our team is full of people that are excited to move the education industry forward with cutting edge ideas and is well positioned to be a high growth company in the Edtech landscape.

About the Role:

Wisewire is seeking a Nursing Writer to develop the chapter manuscript subject to originality verification, adherence to project writing guidelines, and approval by the Lead Editor, Content Lead, and/or reviewer panels for coverage and level for the multiple titles.

Responsibilities:

- Writing an original sample section for approval and feedback (only required on initial assignment for the project)
- Writing the first draft of the chapter in accordance with project specifications, which may include:
 - Following the project's Writing Guidelines
 - Writing the main content (may include developing an outline to be approved by the Content Lead and Lead Editor, or an outline may be provided to you)
 - Providing citations or references to support main content
 - Providing appropriate art ideas/samples for figures
 - Writing feature box content and suggesting interactive links for the chapter
 - Writing chapter summaries and glossary definitions
 - Writing end-of-module assessments and answers
 - Ensuring that content represents inclusive and diverse scholarship, examples, assessments that are relevant to people from a wide range of backgrounds
 - Revising the first draft after peer review based on direction from the Content Lead and Lead Editor
 - Completing writing on schedule (due 2–4 weeks after receipt, depending on the specific assignment) and inform team immediately when schedule conflicts arise

Qualifications:

- RN License
- MSN or higher
- 2+ years clinical nursing experience
- Nursing education experience at the undergraduate or graduate level - Teaching experience in the specific course (minimum of 5 years; preference is given to current teachers of the course)
- Experience creating content for a college academic audience