En mi cuarto/In my room

Vocabulario

Today, we are going to learn new words, phrases, and expressions about furniture and things that you may have in your room.

- For a proper night's sleep. What you need most for a good night's sleep is the bed, la cama. A comfortable bed is essential to a good night of sleep, dormir, so that you can begin your day with plenty of energy! Your bed sheet, la sábana, and your blanket, la manta, help you to keep cozy in bed. A good pillow, la almohada, is also important to get maximum comfort.
- Furniture. Aside from your bed, you surely have other things in your room! You're likely to have other furniture, los muebles, and a closet, el clóset. Note that the Spanish term equivalent to furniture, los muebles, is a plural word; therefore when you want to refer to a piece of furniture, you would simply say el mueble).
- Other things in your room. Apart from your bed and furniture, you may also have a lamp, la lámpara, a carpet, la alfombra, or any other thing, la cosa, that you need or that you like. All these things in your room help to make your personal space unique.

Note: Like every language, Spanish includes words borrowed from other languages; an example is the word clóset, borrowed from English.

Also, as you know, the Spanish language includes many words of Arabic origin. Many of them, like alcohol and álgebra, begin with the syllable al because al was the Arabic article. Can you find two more words with Arabic origin in the Vocabulary above? Yes! La almohada and la alfombra are Spanish words with Arabic origin!

Watch the vocabulary section of the video only. Listen to the Spanish vocabulary words. After you listen to a word, repeat it aloud. Then, write the English meaning next to the Spanish word in your notebook.
