

Quiz: L.3.1.C

1. Read this sentence:

When the butterfly landed on her arm, Elaine felt a burst of happiness and tears came to her eyes.

Abstract nouns are ideas. They show what people feel or think. Which noun in the sentence is an example of an abstract noun?

- A. butterfly
- B. arm
- C. happiness
- D. eyes

2. Read the following sentence.

When she fell off of her bike, the helmet saved her head, but she felt anger at the speeding car.

Which word in the sentence is an abstract noun?

- A. bike
- B. head
- C. anger
- D. car

3. Choose the abstract noun in the following sentence:

The girl placed the baby bird in the box with great care so as not to hurt its wings.

- A. girl
- B. box
- C. care
- D. wings

4. What is an abstract noun? Select three choices that define an abstract noun.

- A. An abstract noun can be felt or touched, like a teddy bear or a rock.
- B. An abstract noun cannot be felt or touched.
- C. An abstract noun can be an idea or a feeling.
- D. An abstract noun is a specific place, like Idaho or Main Street.
- E. An abstract noun can be a character trait or quality.
- F. An abstract noun can be a living thing, like a plant or animal.

