

Quiz: L.6.1.B

1. Which of the following sentences uses an intensive pronoun correctly?

- A. Janet and myself went to the ballgame.
- B. The teacher called on myself to answer the question.
- C. I myself ran the marathon in record time.
- D. Myself and Bob bought the pizza.

2. Which of the following sentences uses an intensive pronoun correctly?

- A. Yourself should have warned me about the mosquitoes.
- B. You yourself should have given him the money.
- C. I know this is a stressful time for yourself and your husband.
- D. Lana and yourself are my two best friends.

3. The following sentence uses an intensive pronoun incorrectly:

Yourself and me should write a book together.

Which of the following rewrites the sentence so that the intensive pronoun is used correctly?

- A. Yourself and I should write a book together.
- B. You and I should write a book together ourselves.
- C. I should write a book with yourself.
- D. Me and yourself should write a book together.

4. Which intensive pronoun correctly completes the following sentence?

The children _____ were able to follow the recipe and bake the pie.

5. Specify if each sentence in the table uses a correct or incorrect intensive pronoun.

Sentence	Correct / Incorrect
We will go camping ourselves this weekend.
My hamster taught themselves to run on its wheel.
I myself heard the author speak at the conference.
The famous movie star talked to our class ourselves today.
She will make the cake herself.

