

Quiz: L.3.2.C

1. Which of the following sentences uses correct punctuation?
 - A. Andrew asked, "Why would anyone want to go camping in the desert?"
 - B. Andrew asked "Why would anyone want to go camping in the desert?"
 - C. Andrew asked, "Why would anyone want to go camping in the desert"?
 - D. Andrew asked, Why would anyone want to go camping in the desert?
2. Which sentence uses commas and quotation marks correctly?
 - A. "Mom," said Riley, I want you to meet your new violin teacher.
 - B. Mom said, Riley, I want you to meet your "new" violin teacher.
 - C. "Mom, said Riley, I want you to meet your new violin teacher."
 - D. Mom said, "Riley, I want you to meet your new violin teacher."
3. Read this sentence to answer the question that follows:

Let's go to the park said Jordan.

Which option shows how commas and quotation marks should be used in this sentence?

 - A. "Let's go to the park said," Jordan.
 - B. "Let's go," to the park said Jordan.
 - C. "Let's go to the park," said Jordan.
 - D. "Let's go to the park, said Jordan."
4. Which sentences correctly use commas and quotation marks in dialogue? Circle the correct answer options.
 - A. My mom said, "Eat your dinner."
 - B. My mom said "Eat your dinner."
 - C. My mom said "Eat your dinner."
 - D. My mom said, "Eat your dinner".
 - E. My mom said "Eat your dinner".
 - F. "Eat your dinner" said my mom.
 - G. "Eat your dinner", said my mom.
 - H. "Eat your dinner," said my mom.

