

Quiz: L.3.1.I

1. Read the two sentences below:

The telephone rang. The sleeping children woke up.

Which of the following is the best way to turn these two sentences into one complex sentence?

- A. The telephone rang, and the sleeping children woke up.
 - B. The telephone rang when the sleeping children woke up.
 - C. Because the telephone rang, the sleeping children woke up.
 - D. Because the sleeping children woke up, the telephone rang.
2. Read the three sentences below:

The dog barked. The cat meowed. The chicken clucked.

Which of the following is the best way to turn these three sentences into one compound sentence?

- A. The dog barked, the cat meowed, and the chicken clucked.
 - B. The dog barked, and the cat meowed, and the chicken clucked.
 - C. Because the chicken clucked, the dog and cat barked and meowed.
 - D. The chicken clucked whenever the dog and cat barked and meowed.
3. Read these words.

and	inside
children	it
raining	stay
stops	the
them	until watch	we will

Which of these sentences uses the words to make a complex sentence?

- A. We will stay inside.
- B. We will watch the children.
- C. Until it stops raining, the children will stay inside.
- D. The children will stay inside, and we will watch them.

