

Quiz A: L.3.2.E

1. Read this sentence to answer the question that follows:

Pilar was happy. She was filled with _____.

Which of the following words makes a correct sentence?

- A. happiful
 - B. happily
 - C. happiment
 - D. happiness
2. Sharon is writing a report about the difference in temperature between Florida and New Jersey.

What is the correct way to spell the title of Sharon's report?

- A. A Change in the Whether
- B. A Change in the Wither
- C. A Change in the Weather
- D. A Change in the Weathir

3. Read the following sentence:

When we returned from school, Dad was _____ bread.

Which word completes the sentence?

- A. baking
 - B. bakeing
 - C. bayking
 - D. bakking
4. Each sentence is missing a word. Circle the correct spelling of each missing word from the options in parentheses. Then, write the correct answer in each blank.
- A. The trick to completing a _____ is to find the edges and corners first.
(pussle/pussel/puzzle/puzzel)
 - B. I paid for a piece of candy with a quarter, and I got a _____ back.
(nikel/nickel/nickle/nikle)
 - C. My belt was very _____, so I had to tighten it.
(lose/luse/louse/loose)

